The Executive Committee is strictly a deliberative body and as such none of its officers including the Chairman can exercise any administrative functions except in the matter of any specific scheme which is being worked by the Committee as an experimental measure.

If the object of the inspection is merely to obtain information there are other ways of doing so and we have issued instructions several times to all Heads of Depts to comply promptly with all requests for information by any of the Committees.

If the object is however to study in detail a particular institution with a view to ascertain its actual working and use this experience in the preparation of a scheme dealing with the Organization or development of institutions of the type Eqm in the institution, I have no doubt that the S.S.E will afford all necessary facilities in the matter. In my humble

Minimum even if the Chairman's letter request is complied with in the form asked for it is likely to lead to unpleasant relations between the Executive Committee and the Dept. I have had no difficulty so far in keeping to the Executive Conference in writing any instruction that I wanted or getting any information required and several matters that came to my notice in that capacity were suitably dealt with by the Heads of the departments in every respect to basis. Financial Secretariat,

Dated, Bangalore, the 8th August 1916.

My dear D'Souza,

Are the inspecting powers of the Chairman of the Education Committee defined anywhere ? Is there any objection to his inspecting any Government or aided Educational institutions in the State on his own initiative so as to gain first hand information ? The orders of the Dewan President may kindly be obtained in the matter and communicated to me.

Yours sincerely,

J Chikavanta
